* On May 1, 2017, procedures for handling biased-based policing complaints were modified by the Office of Attorney General (OAG). Complaints are now reviewed by the OAG, and all complaints alleging the unreasonable use of race, ethnicity, national origin, gender or religion by a law enforcement officer in deciding to initiate an enforcement action are forwarded to the Kansas Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training (KS-CPOST). Complainants that do not meet this statutory requirement are directed to resources that may address the complainant's concern.
