

What can I do to prevent gang involvement by my child?

- Get involved in your child's school activities.
- Be a positive role model and set the right example.
- Know your child's friends and their families.
- Encourage good study habits.
- Teach your children how to cope with peer pressure.
- Help your child develop good conflict-resolution skills.
- Encourage your child to participate in positive after-school activities like recreation centers and organized sports.
- Join or create a neighborhood watch association.
- Report and remove graffiti.
- Listen to your child's concerns about gangs.
- Talk to your child about the dangers and consequences of gang involvement.
- Let your child know that you don't want to see him or her arrested.
- Explain to your child that he or she should not:
  - » Associate with gang members.
  - » Attend gang-related social events.
  - » Use hand signs or symbols associated with gangs.

Gangs Impact the Entire Community –

Be a Part of the Solution

- Learn to identify the signs of gang activity.
- Give children the love and attention they deserve.
- Provide youth with positive alternatives to gang involvement.
- Work with law enforcement and other concerned citizens in gang prevention efforts.
- Project a clear message that gangs won't be tolerated in our communities.

GANGS are luring away our children with false promises of safety and protection.

GANGS offer a deceptive sense of family and belonging. Young people do not realize this relationship comes with a price... until it's too late. Upon entering the gang, our children are forced to commit violent and illegal acts. This places them at risk of imprisonment and death.
