Section IV: Definitions

Felony disqualifications: Any prior felony conviction as an adult (even if expunged), as well as any non-expunged felony juvenile adjudication, must be disclosed on the application. What constitutes a “felony” offense is judged in accordance with the law where the offense occurred. What constitutes a “conviction” for that felony will generally be judged by Kansas law. An active felony prohibition from another jurisdiction will likely preclude eligibility for a Kansas CCHL in accordance with Federal law.

NOTES: Anyone with any prior felony history at all should consult with private legal counsel to determine their CCHL eligibility. The AG cannot offer legal advice or interpretation to individual citizens about their CCHL eligibility or their ability to lawfully possess firearms in general. Again, pending felony charges, to include a pending diversion agreement for a felony violation, likely prohibit an applicant from obtaining a CCHL.

“Misdemeanor crime involving domestic violence” means: (1) A misdemeanor under, Federal, State or Tribal law; (2) that has as an element the use of force, attempted use of force or threatened use of a deadly weapon; (3) that was committed by: a current or former spouse, parent or guardian of the victim; a person who shares a child with the victim; a person who is living with or has lived with the victim as a spouse, parent or guardian; or a person who is similarly situated to a spouse, parent or guardian to the victim.

NOTES: The misdemeanor being violated DOES NOT have to have the term “domestic” in it at all (this means a simple assault, battery or disorderly conduct can be sufficient even if pled down from a “domestic” assault, battery, or disorderly conduct charge). Also, under binding federal interpretation, because Kansas law does not completely remove an expunged conviction from a person’s record, an expungement (or setting-aside) of the conviction will not suffice to allow CCHL licensure because the federal prohibition under 18 USC 922(g)(9) still applies. Further, not all core civil rights (vote, hold public office and sit on a jury) are lost following a misdemeanor conviction so a person’s civil rights cannot be “restored” when they are not lost to begin with. Effectively then, only a pardon may restore an individual’s ability to possess firearms if they have a qualifying 922(g)(9) conviction. Again, please seek private legal counsel with any questions about a firearms prohibition due to domestic violence conviction.

“Adjudicated as a mental defective” means: a finding by a court, board, commission or other lawful authority that a person, as a result of marked subnormal intelligence, or mental illness, incompetency, condition or disease: (a) Is a danger to himself or to others; or (b) Lacks the mental capacity to contract or manage his own affairs. The term shall include: a finding of insanity by a court in a criminal case; and those persons found incompetent to stand trial or found not guilty by reason of lack of mental responsibility pursuant to articles 50a and 72b of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, 10 U.S.C. 850a, 872b.

“Restraining order” means: a court order that restrains the person from: (a) harassing, stalking or threatening (i) an intimate partner or (ii) child of the intimate partner or the restrained person; or (b) engaging in conduct that places the intimate partner or child in reasonable fear of bodily injury. The order must be one issued after the restrained person received notice and had an opportunity to be heard and must include a finding that the restrained person poses a credible threat to the physical safety of the intimate partner or child; or the order must include a specific prohibition on the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force against the intimate partner or child.

“Retired law enforcement officer” means: a “law enforcement officer,” as defined by K.S.A. 21-5111. A “retired law enforcement officer” must include a letter from the head, or designee, of the retiring agency attesting that the individual retired in good standing, retired for reasons other than mental instability, and that the individual has a non-forfeitable right to benefits under the retirement plan of the agency. This exemption only applies to retired law enforcement officers that were last certified by the Kansas Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (or similar body from another jurisdiction) less than 8 years prior to applying for the Kansas CCHL. Other training exemptions, however, may still apply.

New Resident & Prior Handgun Training: A new resident to Kansas may lawfully continue to carry concealed handguns with or without a valid CCHL so long as they are at least 21 years of age and otherwise lawful to possess firearms. Additionally, persons applying for a Kansas CCHL, whether previously licensed in another jurisdiction or not, may qualify for an exemption from the Kansas CCHL training course if they can provide documentary proof (i.e., training certificate with a course outline) of prior handgun training from another jurisdiction which was “equal to or greater than” the Kansas CCHL training course. At a minimum, documentation must show that the prior, non-Kansas handgun training included (1) instruction on the laws of self-defense; and (2) training and proficiency in the safe handling, storage and actual firing of handguns. If prior training is deemed insufficient, applicants will receive a letter alerting them that they will be required to submit further information OR complete the Kansas CCHL training class.

ADM considerations: A “dependent” of an ADM is a resident of the household of an ADM who financially depends on the ADM in whole or substantial part. An ADM or dependent stationed in Kansas may still apply for a Kansas CCHL even if their permanent State of residence (PSR) is other than Kansas; they must simply submit a photocopy of their non-Kansas DL or ID card as well as the orders currently stationing them in Kansas. To aid law enforcement, such an ADM or dependent fitting this residency exception should carry their military ID, non-resident DL/ID and their Kansas CCHL. Also, effective July 1, 2016, an ADM who is a Kansas resident/PSR but stationed in a State other than Kansas may still apply for a Kansas CCHL. Kansas law requires such an ADM to have their fingerprints taken by the military police (MP) where they are stationed and then have the MP office forward the complete application to the Sheriff of the ADM’s Kansas county of residence. See, K.S.A. 75-7c05(j). NOTE: Kansas law requires all persons carrying concealed in Kansas to be at least 21 years of age even if the carrier is in possession of an otherwise valid non-Kansas CCHL. See, AG Opinion, 2017-018. Therefore, all ADM and their dependents seeking a Kansas CCHL must also be at least 21 years of age to qualify.

Exceptions to Nonimmigrant Alien Prohibition: An “alien” is anyone not a citizen or “national of the U.S.” A “national of the U.S.” is someone who owes permanent allegiance to the U.S. A “nonimmigrant visa” is a visa properly issued to an alien as an eligible nonimmigrant by a competent officer. Nonimmigrant aliens residing in Kansas may apply for a Kansas CCHL if the alien: (1) is admitted to the U.S. for lawful hunting or sporting purposes and in possession of a hunting license/permit issued in the U.S.; (2) is an official representative of a foreign government who is accredited to the U.S. Government or their Government’s mission to an international organization having its headquarters in the U.S.; (3) is an official of a foreign government or a U.S. Dept. of State designated “distinguished foreign visitor”; (4) is foreign law enforcement of a friendly foreign government and here on official law enforcement duties; or (5) has received a firearms waiver from the Attorney General of the United States. (See 18 U.S.C § 922(y)(2) for additional exceptions)

“Unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance” means: A person who uses a controlled substance and has lost the power of self-control with reference to the use of controlled substance; and any person who is a current user of a controlled substance in a manner other than as prescribed by a licensed physician. Convictions in the last year, admissions of use, multiple arrests in the past 5 years (including one in the most recent year) can all be used (in addition to other scenarios) as evidence that one is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance.

Permanently Expired Licenses: A Kansas CCHL is permanently expired if not renewed within six (6) months following the expiration date. A person with a permanently expired Kansas CCHL must submit a new application through the Sheriff in the county where they reside.
