Greetings:

K.S.A. 75-7c16(b) of the Kansas Personal and Family Protection Act (hereinafter “the Act”), also known as the concealed carry handgun law, requires the Attorney General, on or before January 1 of each year, to submit a statistical report to the Governor, President of the Senate, the Senate Minority Leader, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the House Minority Leader indicating the number of concealed carry handgun licenses (hereinafter “license” or “licenses”) issued, revoked, suspended and denied during the preceding fiscal year and the reasons for the revocations, suspensions and denials. The day-to-day administration of the Act is monitored by the Attorney General’s concealed carry licensing unit (CCLU).

Licenses Issued

Note: Under the Act, the CCLU does not “issue” the actual license card. The CCLU approves an application and sends the applicant (whether initial or renewal) an approval notice. The applicant may then take that approval notice to one of many Kansas Department of Revenue stations in order to have the actual license card issued.

Initial Licenses: In Fiscal Year 2022 (FY22), the CCLU issued 4,544 new or initial concealed carry handgun licenses. From FY16 when the general allowance of unlicensed concealed carry became law in Kansas until FY20, initial application numbers declined.¹ In FY21, new license applications increased significantly when compared to the five previous fiscal years. This was in part due to the addition of a provisional concealed carry license for persons aged 18-20. FY22 saw a decline in new license applications when compared to FY21.

Renewal Licenses: In FY22, the CCLU issued 15,169 renewed licenses. Initial and renewed Kansas licenses are valid for four years. FY22 was an intermediate year for renewals as it included a portion of the second round of renewals for FY13, the largest year of initial applications. FY23 will be a large renewal year as it will include all renewals for licenses issued in 2007, the first year concealed carry licenses were issued, in addition to those issued in 2011, 2015, and 2019.

Application Denials

If an applicant's history disqualifies the applicant under the Act's eligibility criteria found under K.S.A. 75-7c04(a), that applicant "shall" be denied a license. During FY22, the CCLU denied nine initial applications and denied one renewal application.

Administrative Actions against Licenses

Suspensions: The Act requires that a license shall be "suspended" if the licensee becomes subject to a criminal charge or other "proceeding" which could render them ineligible under K.S.A. 75-7c04(a). See, K.S.A. 75-7c07(b). An immediate suspension is required of licenses where the licensee is subject to a qualifying protection order. See, K.S.A. 75-7c07(c). In FY22, two suspensions were proposed.

Revocations: If a licensee becomes ineligible to maintain their license, the Act requires the "revocation" of that license. See, K.S.A. 75-7c07(a). In FY22, nine revocations were proposed.

Any suspended or revoked license holder who is later cleared of a charge, or otherwise regains eligibility for a license, can have their license "reinstated" if the license has not expired. In FY22, five licenses were reinstated.

Surrenders: While the Act generally requires Kansas residency in order to obtain and maintain a license,² the Act allows the licensee to notify the CCLU of the move to a new state and the license will remain valid for up to 90 days. After that, the CCLU simply surrenders the license (as opposed to revoking the same). In FY22, the CCLU voluntarily surrendered 90 licenses following notification by the licensee that he or she had changed residency to another state.

KAPA: The denial, suspension, and revocation procedures outlined in the Act are performed in accordance with the Kansas Administrative Procedures Act (KAPA). KAPA generally requires that, prior to any denial, suspension, or revocation becoming final, the applicant or licensee be given notice and an opportunity to request a hearing. Occasionally, because of this notice period, new information can result in a proposed action of the CCLU becoming "rescinded" before the action is final. For example: a temporary protection order being dismissed or a criminal charge being misreported or reduced. It should be noted that not requesting a KAPA hearing following a denial, suspension or revocation does not prohibit future licensure of that person should that person later attain eligibility for licensure.

² The exception to this general rule is active duty military and their qualifying dependents; they may keep their home of record and still obtain a Kansas license while stationed here in Kansas.

Fluidity: With respect to the suspension and revocation procedures, an occasional result occurs when a license is first “suspended” because of a possible ineligibility (i.e. a pending felony charge) followed by a “revocation” of that same license if the licensee later becomes actually ineligible under the Act (i.e., the licensee is convicted of that felony charge). It is also possible for a suspension and/or revocation process to span between fiscal years.
