12-20	9/17/2012	An individual alleged he was subjected to a direct line of questioning due to his ethnicity during a traffic stop for a violation. The investigation revealed the Officer collected FIC information in accordance with her investigatory duty after stopping the subject for a traffic violation. The subject admitted to the traffic violation.	10/10/2012	Exonerated
13-9	5/29/2013	An individual alleged he had been followed to his residence from his place of business and eventually stopped in the driveway of his home. The subject admitted to the traffic violation and the investigation showed the officer was on a separate traffic stop only minutes before stopping this subject and thus could not have followed him as described.	7/1/2013	Exonerated
13-13	6/25/2013	An individual alleged he and his three passengers were stopped based on their race, believing the officer could not have witnessed a City Ordinance violation for loud sound amplification, because the vehicle had a factory stereo. The subject questioned the officers	7/17/2013	Exonerated
