Local Identifier do not use names	Date Complaint Received	Action Taken	Date Complaint Closed	Disposition
KBI12-51	December 29, 2011	The complaint was originally given to the KS CPOST and complaint was concerning a Liberal PD officer but was in regards to a case that KBI agents helped the LPD officer in question. The KBI conducted an internal review of the complaint. A Kansas CPOST investigator independently reviewed the complaint.	February 2, 2012	A Special Agent in Charge with the KBI completed the inquiry. Based on the information collected, the SAC did not find any one element that would support a claim that the complainant was targeted by KBI Special Agents based on race or other bias. The SAC found no information that would support a claim that the KBI investigation that was initiated, after receiving information from a vetted confidential informant who told the KBI that the complainant was involved in trafficking crack cocaine, was racially motivated. The complainant later admitted to selling crack cocaine and entered a plea and was sentenced based on the evidence presented by the KBI agents in question. The complainant is currently serving a sentence with the KANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS (KDOC). Upon review of the SAC's findings by an Assistant Director, the internal inquiry was closed as unfounded.
