vs.

Case No. 99-C-12379

d/b/a Knapp & Associates, Inc.,

Defendant.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF CONSENT JUDGMENT

NOW on this 23rd day of September, 1999, comes before the Court Plaintiff's Petition for Approval of Consent Judgment, pursuant to K.S.A. 50-632(b). The State of Kansas, ex rel. Carla J. Stovall, Attorney General, appears by and through Derek L. Schmidt, Assistant Attorney General. Defendant Everett Gilbert Knapp III, individually, d/b/a Knapp & Associates, and d/b/a Knapp & Associates, Inc., appears by and through counsel, Donald E. Jensen.

Whereupon, the parties advise the court that they have stipulated and agreed to the following matters:

THE PARTIES

1. Carla J. Stovall is the Attorney General of the State of Kansas.
2. Defendant Everett Gilbert Knapp III, individually, d/b/a Knapp & Associates, and d/b/a Knapp & Associates, Inc., is an individual doing business as a sole proprietor. Defendant resides at 11728 Woodward, Overland Park, Kansas 66210, and maintains a place of business at 7009 West 81st Street, Suite 201, Overland Park, Kansas 66204.

3. Defendant is a supplier as defined by K.S.A. 50-624(i).

4. At all times relevant hereto, and in the ordinary course of business, Defendant has engaged in consumer transactions in Kansas as defined by K.S.A. 50-624(c).

5. As used in this Consent Judgment, the term "craftworks" means any personal property or chattel, and specifically includes but is not limited to personal property or chattels created, built or otherwise shaped, formed or caused to exist through the individual labor or skill of any person.

ALLEGATIONS

9. The Attorney General has conducted an investigation of Defendant's business activities in the State of Kansas.

10. Based upon information gathered by and through the investigation described in paragraph nine (9), the Attorney General alleges Defendant has engaged in the following acts and practices that are deceptive and/or unconscionable and in violation of the Kansas Consumer Protection Act, K.S.A. 50-623 et seq.:

a. Defendant, knowingly or with reason to know, represented to consumers that Defendant would assist consumers in obtaining journalistic coverage, advertising and/or other forms of publicity related to craftworks fabricated and/or owned by the consumers. Defendant accepted samples of craftworks, which are items of value, from consumers but failed to provide any services or to return the craftworks to the consumers. Therefore, the consumers were unable to receive a material benefit from the subject of the transaction. Each such act is an unconscionable act in violation of K.S.A. 50-627(b)(3) and of K.S.A. 50-627(a).

b. Defendant represented to consumers that his business was a corporation when, in truth and in fact, it was not a corporation, a representation made knowingly or with reason to know that Defendant had a status he did not have. Each such act is a deceptive act or practice in violation of K.S.A. 50-626(b)(1)(B) and of K.S.A. 50-626(a).

c. Defendant, knowingly or with reason to know, represented to consumers that his business had multiple employees when, in truth and in fact, some or all of the "employees" other than Defendant did not exist. Consumers' contacts with such employees were, in truth and in fact, contacts with Defendant, who concealed his identity through use of alias names, including but not limited to the name Orville Timmons. Each such act is a deceptive act or practice in violation of K.S.A. 50-626(b)(1)(B) and of K.S.A. 50-626(a).

11. Defendant voluntarily agrees to this Consent Judgment without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law.
